

If you wish to include material in your final report or supplementary material that has been previously published, you usually need to obtain written permission from the original copyright holder (usually the publisher).

Material usually requiring permission:

- A single quotation or several short quotes from a full-length book of over 300 words from a book.
- A single quotation of over 50 words from another a journal, newspaper or magazine article.
- A quotation of any length from a website.
- Charts, tables or graphs or other representations where the author is using the entire representation or has used a substantial amount of material from another work.
- Photographs.
- Reproduction of web pages or screenshots.
- Certain trade mark usage.
- Certain photographs containing recognisable people.
- Reproduction of advertisements.
- Any third-party software used in a CD, DVD or website supporting an author’s work.
- Film stills and film grabs.
- Ordnance Survey maps, map extracts and redrawn maps.
- Quotations from informal writings, such as speeches, interviews, mission statements, questionnaires, classroom discussions or student works.

Please ensure that you read the Permissions section of the Information for Authors. The guidance also provides a Step-by-step-guide to obtaining permissions.

The lead author should complete the checklist (selecting “N/A” in the table below if no permissions were required) and upload it on to the NETSCC Management Information System \(MIS\) when submitting the final report.
